This wasn't a requirement or anything. I just made it as a reference so we could see what each other were removing. If Kristy removed them I wouldn't worry about it.

Subject: Middle School Library Lessons

This is my first year having middle school, grades 6-8, as a part of my specials rotations. I am looking for some of your favorite lessons, units, etc, to use with these kiddos. I only have each class for 25 minutes twice a week so my time is limited.

Just looking for newer ideas to do with my older kiddos.

Thanks!

Subject: Re: elementary -- need book suggestions

These were suggested on ChatGPT:

Certainly, here are a few fiction picture books that revolve around the theme of police officers that would make great read-alouds:

1.

"The Police Cloud" by Christoph Niemann In this imaginative book, a police officer named Jim notices a cloud that looks like a police officer's hat. The cloud takes on different forms as it helps out around the city, and Jim learns that even something as simple as a cloud can have a big impact.

2.

"The Berenstain Bears: Law of the Jungle" by Stan and Jan Berenstain In this classic Berenstain Bears tale, Brother Bear finds himself in a sticky situation with a group of bullies. He learns about the importance of community rules and how the police play a role in maintaining order.

3.

"A Policeman's Lot" by Irene Smalls This book follows Officer Louis as he navigates his busy day, helping people in his community and solving problems. It provides insight into the various tasks that police officers undertake to keep their neighborhoods safe.

4.

"Good Morning, Police Officer" by Alyssa Satin Capucilli In this cheerful book, young readers get a glimpse into a police officer's daily routine. It highlights the officer's interactions with the community and shows how they contribute positively to the lives of the people they serve.

5.

"Police Officers on Patrol" by Kersten Hamilton This book offers an engaging look at the lives of police officers as they go about their work, patrolling the city and helping those in need. The colorful illustrations and simple text make it suitable for young readers.

6.

"Llama Llama Time to Share" by Anna Dewdney While not exclusively focused on police officers, this popular Llama Llama series book touches on the role of community helpers, including police officers. The story centers around sharing and cooperation among friends.

7.

"Police Cat" by Debrah Boelts This heartwarming story follows a stray cat named Sergeant Billy as he becomes the official police cat at a station. The book highlights the positive impact of animals in a community and the bonds they can form with those they serve.

Remember to review these books beforehand to ensure they align with your read-aloud preferences and the age group of your audience. Enjoy the read-aloud sessions!

Good Afternoon,

We have received an open records request for "the updated list of titles that have been removed from all five schools." We anticipate that this is about SB 150 and have sought clarification. This is the third such request. We pulled Destiny weeding reports to submit for the other requests, but I know that some of you have amended your list and placed items back in the collection. With that said, please send me a list of all things pulled from your library due to SB 150 or SB 5 by Monday, September 18th at noon so that we can comply with the open record request.

Thanks, Steve

Steve,
I emailed Mark yesterday concerning the progress I've made on returning the titles to the shelves. It's a slow going process, and they are still not officially in the system. But, I do have a spreadsheet that will reflect what will still be removed once those are returned. I'm assuming that's what you want?

I can have that ready pretty quickly, but I'm wondering what information you want included. Just titles, since that's the request? Or do I need to include any of the following: Author, ISBN, Copyright Date, Cost...anything else?

Thanks,

Yes, The spreadsheet is fine. As long as it accurately reflects only what will be removed "at the end of the day" we should be fine. As long as it has at least the name and author it probably doesn't matter what else is on there.

Here's a copy of the titles that weren't labeled as "return to circulation."

Yes, The spreadsheet is fine. As long as it accurately reflects only what will be removed "at the end of the day" we should be fine. As long as it has at least the name and author it probably doesn't matter what else is on there.

Steve,

I emailed Mark yesterday concerning the progress I've made on returning the titles to the shelves. It's a slow going process, and they are still not officially in the system. But, I do have a spreadsheet that will reflect what will still be removed once those are returned. I'm assuming that's what you want?

I can have that ready pretty quickly, but I'm wondering what information you want included. Just titles, since that's the request? Or do I need to include any of the following: Author, ISBN, Copyright Date, Cost...anything else?

Thanks,

Good Afternoon,

We have received an open records request for "the updated list of titles that have been removed from all five schools." We anticipate that this is about SB 150 and have sought clarification. This is the third such request. We pulled Destiny weeding reports to submit for the other requests, but I know that some of you have amended your list and placed items back in the collection. With that said, please send me a list of all things pulled from your library due to SB 150 or SB 5 by Monday, September 18th at noon so that we can comply with the open record request.

Thanks, Steve
